Rondout + Ulster Connect to Highlight Technology Partnership on Oct. 2

Rondout + Ulster Connect will hold an event on Oct. 2 to showcase the technology and collaborative projects being shared between SUNY Ulster and Rondout Valley Central School District through this new partnership. Open to faculty, educators and the community, this will take place from 8:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m., at the Rondout Valley Middle School on Kyserike Road. (Coffee will be served from 8:00 to 8:30) Pre-registration is required.

Featured speakers include SUNY Ulster President Donald Katt, and Rondout Valley Central School District Superintendent Rosario Agostaro.

Keynote speaker is Dr. Curtis Jay Bonk via video conference. Dr. Bonk is a writer, speaker, and consultant as well as a professor of instructional systems technology at Indiana University. He is the author of three recent books: The World is Open: How Web Technology is Revolutionizing Education (2009), Empowering Online Learning: 100+ Activities for Reading, Reflecting, Displaying, and Doing (2008), and The Handbook of Blended Learning: Global Perspectives, Local Designs (2006). Dr. Bonk is president of CourseShare and SurveyShare. Drawing on his background as a corporate controller, CPA, educational psychologist, and instructional technologist, Dr. Bonk offers unique insights into the intersection of business, education, psychology, and technology. His blog can be found at <http://travelinedman.blogspot.com/>

Showcases, breakout sessions and lunch.
